

Opal Johnston Jordan
Geo Ervin Jordan

A black and white photograph of a low, rectangular gravestone for the Jordan family. The stone is dark with light-colored inscriptions. At the top center, the name 'JORDAN' is carved in a large, serif font within a light-colored oval. Below this, the stone is divided into three sections. The left section is for the mother, A. Opal Johnston, with her name and birth date. The center section is for the marriage date, with the word 'MARRIED' above the date. The right section is for the father, George Ervin, with his name and birth and death dates. The stone is decorated with floral carvings at the corners and between the sections. It is set in a grassy area with some flowers and a shadow cast to the right.
